JULIAN CHICHESTER

Starting out importing antique furniture from Asia in 1986, Julian Chichester launched its first interior collection of five designs in 1995 and hasn't looked back since. Drawing on classical influences with dashes of the contemporary, playful and unexpected, the brand's style continually evolves. With 30 to 40 items added to the range each year, its storage offering is as broad as it is varied.

LIGNE ROSET

Manufacturing furniture alongside the River Rhône deep in the French countryside since 1860, Ligne Roset's long history has seen it grow from wooden umbrella and walking stick maker in the 1800s to today filling over 200 stores worldwide with its lovely objects for the home. The award-winning brand is also known for its collaborations with celebrated designers such as Pierre Paulin, Inga Sempé and Ronan & Erwan Bouroullec.
